

The New Nation

December 27, 2011

DORP Secretary General AHM Nouman called on Ombudsman of Canada Ms Fiona Crean at the latter's University Avenue office recently.

AHM Nouman meets Ombudsman of Canada

City Desk

A meeting was held between Ms. Fiona Crean, Ombudsman, Toronto, Ontario, Canada and AHM Nouman Secretary General DORP and President, Coordinating Council for Human Rights in Bangladesh- CCHRB at her 375 University Ave. office on 20th December, 2011. During the meeting both of them shared their experiences and knowledge regarding the understanding of Human Rights situation in developed and developing countries like Bangladesh.

Ms. Fiona Crean termed 20 years vision plan for poverty elevation through SAPNA programme, in Bangladesh as a wonderful initiative.

She unveiled the cover of a poster titled "Now I am empowered." She also appreciated the initiative for promoting the Election Caretaking Council campaign for its universal acceptance instead of controversial caretaker government in Bangladesh.

Nouman attended the Human Rights Day celebration on 6th December, at Ontario Science Centre, Canada organized by 'United for Human Rights' and joined signature campaign for 'Invest in Human Rights Education'.

The Daily Kalbela (a Bengali daily newspaper, Bangladesh)

Dhaka, Friday, 23 December 2011

Meeting with Ombudsman, Ms. Fiona Crean of Toronto, Ontario, Canada on 20th December 2011 at University Ave Office.

Miserly